What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Farmers: Worry

about the unpredictability

of weather and market prices.

Farmers: Express concerns about changing weather patterns affecting crop yields.

Government: Announces policies and subsidies to support agriculture.

Market Analysts: Share data and predictions about crop prices and demand.

> Indian agriculture crop production analysis (1997-2021)

Government: Aims to balance food security and economic growth.

Farmers:

Experience

stress during droughts or crop diseases.

Market Analysts: Consider global factors impacting crop prices.

Farmers: Adapt planting strategies based on weather forecasts.

Government: Implements irrigation and infrastructure projects.

Market Analysts: Analyze trade agreements and weather reports.

Government: Strives for sustainable agriculture and Market Analysts: Concerned about market volatility affecting farmers.

rural development.

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties? What other feelings might influence their behavior?

Feels

